8. Upon entering the Springville Rodeo Queen pageant, contestants must sign a Waiver of Liability and Expectation Forms and complete an Application.

SPORTSMANSHIP -The Springville Rodeo Queen Pageant Board

expects each contestant, parents, friends, and relatives to display the highest degree of sportsmanship during the pageant and following the coronation. Each contestant should be mindful that they are representing the Springville Rodeo Queen Contest, the Springville Rodeo, the community of Springville, and the Sport of Professional Rodeo. Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Unsportsmanlike conduct could result in disqualification and affect further eligibility to compete in the Springville Rodeo Queen Contest.

PAGEANT DIVISIONS

Poise and Personality

The purpose of this category is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

1. Appearance
2. Grooming, this should include neatness, cleanliness, fingernails, hair, hat, boots, and other western apparel.

3. Posture: How the contestant carries herself is very important, the judges will be looking for contestants to carry themselves straight, tall and exude self-confidence and poise.

4. Poise and ladylike behavior in every situation. Judges will be looking for contestants to handle each situation that they are involved in with grace and style. Judges will also be looking for contestants to have a vast knowledge of proper etiquette.

5. Western fashion sense: contestants should pick outfits that reflect fashionable and tasteful western clothing. Judges will pay particular attention to contestant's ability to use colors to enhance her natural coloring and enhance appearance and eye appeal.

6. Proper fit of clothing: above all contestants should pay attention to the fit of her outfit. Outfits should be figure flattering and altered to fit her personality. In addition, contestants should be properly fitted for a hat so that it will flatter the face.

7. This is not a fashion contest and we do not want contestants to spend a fortune on your clothing; we just want to see you at your best in all occasions.

8. Intelligence and good common sense.

9. Conversational ability in varied areas with an emphasis on grammar and enunciation.

10. Good sense of humor

11. Self-confidence, high moral standards, sincerity, and integrity

HORSEMANSHIP

Horsemanship will count for 33.3% of the overall total score. The horsemanship competition will be held at the Springville rodeo grounds following the completion of the Poise & Personality Brunch on April 13th.

No studs are permitted to be used in the competition or any of the horsemanship clinics.

Contestants are to provide their horses for the entire contest.

DON'T FORGET TO SMILE!!

- 1) On the day of the competition contestants will draw for positions. Upon completion of drawing parents, trainers and anyone else associated with the contestants will be asked to take a seat in the stands until the judging is completed. Each contestant will be allowed to have one person remain with them during the competition.

- 2) Contestants are to wear western or western show attire, hat and boots for horsemanship portion of the contest. No contestant is permitted to wear chaps of any kind.
- 3) Each contestant will be judged on her ability to control her horse and the response her horse has to her commands. Horse and rider should be good working partners.
- 4) Once the last contestant is finished, all contestants will enter the arena and line up in numerical order in the center of the arena so the judges can make their final scores.

Note: Although it is not your horse or tack being judged you should still take pride in your attire and the cleanliness of your horse and tack.

The horsemanship portion of the competition will consist of rail work, one pattern, and a Queen's salute.

- 1) First go-round: This round will consist of rail work. All Queen contestants will enter the arena in order of drawn position. You will have to walk, trot, lope and reverse direction as the announcer requests
- 2) Second go-round: This will consist of a set pattern that is Included in this packet. Directions to the pattern are located on the last page of this packet.
- 3) Third go-round: Queen's Salute. Remember the girl who wins the contest will be representing our rodeo and will be required to do queen salutes at many different rodeos throughout the year. So practice, practice, practice your queen salute!

Note: We will be having horsemanship practice days to go over the pattern and salute as well as practice them. We suggest that you also practice on your own time to ensure that you are familiar with the patterns.

Judging of Horsemanship:

Horsemanship -- Basic equitation abilities

-- seat, hands, feet, posture etc.

-- Performance and ability

-- Control of animal, correct leads, ability to show off animal and riders capabilities in any situation

Showmanship -- Presence, crowd appeal, attitude, personality

POISE & PERSONALITY

The poise and personality portion of the contest will consist of personal interview, impromptu questions, and written test. This portion of the competition is worth 33.3% of the total overall score.

Personal Interview: During this portion the contestants will be interviewed privately by the judges. The judges will be trying to get to know the contestant and their personality. The contestant should also be prepared to answer questions on rodeo, equine knowledge and local rodeo knowledge.

Speech: Each contestant will be required to give a short speech about themselves in front of the judges and audience. Please keep the speech 3 min or under.

3) Impromptu questions:

Each girl will be asked the same 4 Impromptu questions after she is done with her speech. The questions can consist from personality questions to rodeo/tack knowledge. So keep up on current events, rodeo and equine knowledge and remember to show your personality!

4) Written Exam: each Queen contestant will take a written exam consisting of 15 rodeo and equine knowledge questions worth 1pt ea. The 15 questions will consist of multiple choice, true false and fill in the blank.

Queen Contestants and their parents are guests of the Rodeo Association. The Brunch is open to the public and any additional tickets can be purchased from the contest directors. Reservations are necessary as the meal is catered. Tickets will be around $15 to $20 for attendees other than the contestant and her family. We will have an exact amount when we get closer to the pageant.

There will be a lot of people from the Springville community present at the luncheon and they are all very interested in getting to know all of you. Feel free to mingle and get to know everyone. Don't forget to be polite and lady like!

Please don't forget to invite your family and friends, the more the merrier!! This year's luncheon will be held at River Island County Club. The date is set for April 13, 2019.

Contestants will be notified at a later date on what time they must be there and ready to go.

Remember that the judges are not only looking for your knowledge about the sport of rodeo but also your personality and how you present yourself in front of a crowd.

Photogenic

Each Queen contestant will be judged on a photo that will be submitted no later than March 9th. The Board of directors will be judging the winner of most photogenic. This portion of the contest will not be included in the overall score but the Queen division winner will receive a prize for most photogenic. Generations Photography will be taking the photos. There will be no fee charged to the contestants for the pictures to be taken or for the one picture used by the Queen's board. If you are interested in purchasing photos from generations you may do so at your own cost.

Congeniality

The contestants will be judging between themselves to pick a Congeniality award. This will not be included in the total overall score it is just a way for the girls to recognize the contestant that they feel was the most congenial contestant.

Springville Rodeo Queen & Princess Brunch Silent Auction

A Silent auction will be held in conjunction with the Springville Rodeo Queen & Princess Brunch. Each Queen & Princess contestant will be required to donate one or two auction items with a total value to be greater than or equal to $50.00. If you know anybody who wishes to donate an action item please encourage them to do so. The more donations that are made to the auction the more successful it will be.

The auction will begin one hour before the poise & personality competition starts on the day of the luncheon and will close at the completion of the meal.

And don't forget that the brunch is open to the public so spread the word and invite your family and friends!
